William Lewis (1918-2020) Art Retrospective & Sale: Topography

Ypsilanti, MI

May 22nd, 2021

The Michigan Art Gallery is pleased to announce a public presentation and sale of works by renowned area artist William Lewis (1918-2020). Titled "Topography", the retrospective showcases William Lewis's use of mixed media arts to explore the tension between human contrivance and intrinsic landscape. Each work presents a dynamic interpretation of historic inflection points, reveling in the limitations of 19th and 20th century conceptions of progress.

Opening with a virtual gallery on Saturday, May 22nd at 6:00 pm, the show and sale will be open for in-person viewing beginning Sunday, May 23rd at 12:00 pm.

The online gallery tour will be featured on the Schmidt's Michigan Art Gallery website, www.MichiganArtGallery.com. Works will be available for purchase both online and in-person, please contact info@schmidtsantiques.com with inquiries. The exhibition will be open for live public viewing beginning on Sunday, May 23rd, from 12:00 pm - 5:00 pm, and continue each Saturday through June. Social distancing and masks are required when inside the Gallery.
